

Journal Entries: Pink's Nightmares

- i don't remember all of the dates and when these nightmares happened and these are the only ones that I do remember and were able to list down
- these dreams started when i was gathering materials for my project

#1 - February 2022

1. I was with my friend, ezra but sometimes she wasn't ezra. she becomes someone else, like she was shapeshifting

2. I was in my elementary school near the stage where people were lining up. they were planning on something but people behind that were near the court like me, didn't know what was going on. My friend panicked and decided to cut the line, may mga nainis, napahiya kami nung isa ko pang friend pero hinayaan nalang namin. and then we went back to the court. it was like there was a mass or an event. basta we were just standing there waiting for something to happen, when dumating si b/b/m (??? sobrang weird but anw), and he talked to me for a while, tapos umupo na siya sa may likod ng stage so kita parin namin siya, tapos bigla siyang nagka-heart attack, tapos pinuntahan siya ng mga tao and checking what was happening. And then i or someone else said na don't go near him kasi baka ma-suffocate kapag naka-surround ang mga tao and then he was like all better again (???) he said he was fine and sat behind the stage again, tapos bigla siyang nahulog like he fell on a person and the person fell on the people in front of him and this started chaos and people started panicking and then gunshots were heard tapos i was trying to run away pumunta ako sa may likod ng canteen, and when i was about to go hide somewhere else, biglang nakita ako nung isa kong friend and she was mad and aggressive and i was trying to fight her off and she was saying something like "its all your fault" tapos ako like whuuut and then she stabbed me in the stomach a few times and i was still trying to run away when she was like saying something i don't remember pero parang im gonna die daw ganern kahit anong mangyari shes gonna kill me then she tried to throw a knife at me pero nakailag ako and it hit somebody else in the back of their neck. Anyways i was just standing there and she was gone, and people were just killing each other, and then dumating yung isa ko pang friend, and nakita niya ako, and suddenly he was helping me, habang naglalakad kami i was telling him na pls tell my parents and my family that i love them, pls tell my friends that i love them tapos sabi niya hindi daw i should tell them that daw on my own ganun (sobrang drama), tapos papunta kami sa may sa clinic kasi apparently may booth outside dun. dinala niya ako dun kasi nandun yung isa ko pang friend, and i was talking to my friend and telling her goodbye ganun im sorry then my friend started crying and she was suddenly mad, and nung medyo pumipikit na ako (indicating that im dying) sa galit nung friend ko, nag-fire siya ng gun and then i died i think. and then i woke up

- my dreams usually start of light

i think i was in the dorm with a few ibarangs and we were watching a film and i was talking about how strong yung core nung isa ballerina sa movie kasi parang zombie siya and yung stance niya ay nakabend yung upper body tapos biglang nasa pool party ako na ewan with my mom and ate with other relatives daw but i actually have never seen them before atsaka si kylene alcantara (an artista, weird but anw) eventually para siyang naging treasure hunt? or may bad guys around and we all teamed up to catch them parang ganun so eventually we ended up in uplb tapos kasama ko si mama and ate and we were just silently walking and the people were spread out ganern when two of our so called team members went ahead of us then we heard a gunshot and narealize agad namin nila mama na our team member killed our injured other member. So we silently tried to run away, we were aiming to go to forestry, kasi yun sabi ko na wala makakaalam masyado na nandun kami, we were just running tapos nandun na kami sa baker field, when some of our relatives kinda stopped us and was acting suspicious and was keen on killing us — kasi apparently para siyang biglang naging hunger games where only one of us can live to the end — and so our younger cousin apparently was like trying to tell us na everyone has to die eventually, and i was telling her na i cant kill people, and i also dont want to and would rather kill myself. habang sinasabi ko yun unti unti siya lumalapit and other relatives pero nakatakas kami nila mama and ate, we were running away tapos parang nasa bridge na kami and thats when people started dying tapos dun dumating si kylene, and apparently mama or ate was pregnant with kylene's baby or something like that tapos while we were trying to run away she was able to kill mama and ate tapos ako nalang natira. tapos sinasabi niya sakin na her baby died and is gone and now im about to die and so i was still trying to run away and somehow we ended up like in a house? Basta we teleported indoors and bumaba ako ng second floor pero nandun parin ako sa stairs going to the first floor when kylene was like subukan mo bumaba (insisting that she'd jump from the second floor to kill me, and i was like pretending na id go down para she'd jump on her own pero id actually go to - basta dun sa may staircase may butas sa gilid papuntang second floor, so i wanted to do that pero as i was pretending to go down, i woke up with my heart beating so fast.

#3 March 4, 2022

so we went on a field trip and my schoolmates and i were staying at this hotel tapos medyo sus talaga its like a hotel na dorm or some place with very strict rules tapos dun sa place merong arcade/game room tapos i ended up there with two other girls,,, di talaga kami friends or whatsoever and some guy. the guy that handles that room ewan tapos nakatali / naka-cage yung dalawang girls and sobrang lakas ng storm and apparently they need to get away. kausap ko lang yung isang girl when i saw that the other girl ay tumatakas na, so nagpanic yung kausap. and knowing that the guy was bad and would kill me i ran away as fast as i could. tapos biglang next day parang yung configuration nung space ay yung house ko tapos nung nakadating ako dun kausap nung bad guy yung girl na naiwan na akala ko namatay na, tapos may ginagawa ako when she motioned me to open the doors so we can run away parang ganern,, so binilisan ko and binubuksan ko agad yung door sa living room while the girl ay may tinututok na knife dun sa guy and habang yung guy naglalakad, and nagsstart palapit sakin. so nagppanic na ako binibilisan ko iopen yung door tapos nakalabas ako sa balcony nagmamadaling iopen yung gate while the guy was running after tapos buti bukas yung big gate and nakatakbo agad ako and started screaming and started calling my family

- dun sa dulong part na yun aware na ako me as in pink not the one in the dream. na panaginip ko nga lang yun, so parang hindi ako nagising, but gumising ako. Ginising ko sarili ko.

#4 - March 7, 2022

- i slept three times today

1. Nung una nung madaling araw tapos gumising ako for 8am class, wala naman akong napaginipan

2. After class, natulog ulit ako tapos nagising ako and mabigat yung pakiramdam, i know i dreamt about something but i don't remember

3. after lunch nagnap ako; nasa house ako tapos we had the relatives over ok naman, tapos biglang wala na sila we're inside na and we have family friends staying with us. tapos biglang i needed to prep for my final project na daw (lol) as in i was preparing my things kasi pupunta na ako sa study room to find abi (also weird si abi yung hinahanap ko) and to rehearse and so i went down daw, chineck ko room ni kuya tapos nandun si mam tess, using the computer. And she saw me and just said hi. pagpunta ko sa kitchen medj maraming tao - si avi, and three other people were near the door of the study room. Nakahiga sila dun tapos one of them started saying something to me which i don't remember. Anw i knocked on the door kasi akala ko baka may class, tapos madilim and an old schoolmate of mine opened it i think? tapos may mga tao dun nakahiga and nagrready na sila umalis. tapos tinanong ko nasan si abi, tas nandun lang pala siya sa harap ko hahaha! and then after that naguusap kami sa kitchen, tas sinabi ko kung anong gagawin, agenda for the rehearsals ganun. Basta i said na magrehearse na tapos biglang nandun yung music majors sa study room, sabi nila na pag-afternoon daw sila ang gagamit nung room so namomoblema kami/ako san magrrehearse as in nagppanic ako because i was saying na wala na akong oras kulang na ako sa time di ako aabot then dumating si maam tess tapos she was saying na need ko na magrehearse and kung di kaya magexplore dun sa study room (bc i was kinda saying na need ko ng malaking space) be flexible daw tapos biglang si someone (may isa pa kaming kasama eh) Biglang nagshapeshift into someone (na di ko matandaan kung sino) minsan si scarlett johansson siya minsan ibang tao tapos bigla siyang nag-number dun. As in dance number. As in nagppperform siya ng isang kanta related to my project tapos kinakantahan niya lang kami sobrang weird talaga but after that nagising na ako.
